A Victory for Best Businesses and Services & For Shopping Locally

From the Publisher

At last! The thousands of results are in and tabulated. Readers from throughout our coverage area took the time to fill in the blanks and send in their choice of favorite bakery, favorite pharmacy, favorite dry cleaner, favorite nail salon, favorite caterer, even favorite restaurant by ethnic type, and so many others. There were some 100 categories and a few people nominated a business in each one, so we have to assume that in addition to making known the businesses they were passionate about, those we heard from thought the process was fun.

Now come the rewards. With this issue, we offer the list of winners—a meaningful vote for some of the best businesses on Suffolk's north shore for 2025. Let me emphasize that the nominations came exclusively from the readers, who are the customers of these businesses and services, and hence the most objective voters. They have first hand experience with their choices. What bragging rights that offers for those winning businesses and professionals! It gives them a chance to directly thank their customers and to explain what gives them the edge over their competition. Some of them have taken ad space in these pages to do just that. And we in turn thank them for enabling us to bring this list to our residents.

In addition, we held a drawing for three gift certificates, for $100, $50 & $25, determined by a blind selection from the submissions, for the readers to use in the winning stores or offices. This year's winners will be announced soon! Thank you to all who participated in the contest.

Traditionally we have followed the publication of the winners with a fun party. We still would like to do that, but given current diseases, we are still not sure when that will be. Since Covid we have worked hard starting the middle of March, 2020, to minimize the possibility of contagion around anything we do. We even closed our offices to the public then for many months and admitted visitors by appointment only and only one or two at a time. Even though it looks now like the coronavirus may finally be receding (knock on wood), our offices are open from 10-4, M-F, but we have not yet rescheduled any of our favorite events.

So we hope to offer you a party and a grand get-together, to properly celebrate the winners of the Readers' Choice as we can. We will also look forward to that time and will let everyone know where and when to rub elbows with their favorite providers.

Meanwhile, hearty congratulations to the winners of 2025! You are obviously doing something right to so please your customers that they took the time to fill in your names and then sent the questionnaires back to us.

We, too, put in a considerable effort to amass the information and present it here to you, our readers. We hope you will share in the success of these winners and will find this section a valuable guide for your future needs.

We salute the winners & all the thousands of nominees and their appreciative customers!

Hope Springs Eternal Second Chance Boutique

(supporting Hope House Ministries) Barbara Morin, Director and Carol Acker, Photographer:

"We are thrilled with our ad in North Shore HOMES! Business has picked up considerably and people are saying they buy the paper to see the photographs and keep abreast of our rapidly changing inventory."

Animal Health & Wellness:

"Advertising in the TBR newspapers has given our business a visual presence in the community and North Shore of Long Island. We feel that we can share our joy of serving the community in photos and print. Clients comment about how they enjoy seeing photos of our doctors, staff, and animals! TBR gives us the small town feel with the effect of a large newspaper. We would recommend the services of TBR because of the attention, care, and expertise of the advertising staff and writers. Our 15 year experience with TBR has been very positive. It is one of the only publications that we choose for advertising, both in print and online. Thanks, TBR!"

Ward Melville Heritage Organization:

"All ad staff are very professional and accurate with their work, we are pleased with their results for SB Village. TBR is outstanding community newspapers, offering balanced stories and are overall professional."

Law Office of Tara Scully:

"Tons of visits, very reliable, it has a hometown feel. Even in different more modern times, it still feels hospitable."

Carpet Your World:

"It has increased exposure and very good for recognition. Love that it is a local paper, it is very good for target market and aiming towards a specific audience."

J.M. Troffa:

"Repeating customer and very satisfied with TBR News Media's work, we benefit from the exposure. They are nice and straightforward and they update regularly."

LI Sinus Institute:

"Still waiting on the impact of business, but it is good for recognition. What we appreciate about community newspaper is focusing on the needs and assisting people locally."
